Dr KARL JAMES

Head of Military History, War
Museum, Canberra.

Karl is the Head of Military History at the Australian War Memorial in Canberra. The Memorial is a shrine, a museum and an archive. Its purpose is to commemorate the sacrifice of Australians who had died in war or on operational service. Karl's research has focused on Australia's experience during the Second World War and, more recently, on Australia's commitment to the conflict in Afghanistan. He has published three books on Australian military campaigns in the Second World War and contributed to other publications. He has also curated several permanent and temporary exhibitions at the Australian War Memorial.
